

Dorchester to become a dementia friendly town

DORCHESTER is working its way towards becoming a Dementia Friendly Town.

The Alzheimer's Society initiative aims to make the town more inclusive for those with the condition and help them to remain independent for longer.

It is urging businesses across the town to sign up and enrol staff on a simple training programme.

by Trevor Bevens

Under the project shop and business staff will be trained to understand how they can help and a "safe haven" has already been set up.

Local project worker Jo Bazalgette from the Alzheimer's Society said that statistics show West

Dorset will see the biggest percentage increase in those diagnosed with dementia in the county – doubling between 2009 and 2025, from around 2,000 sufferers to 4,000.

Although primarily affecting older people, the youngest diagnosed locally is only 41.

The project was launched after a survey discovered that under half of those suffering from dementia felt part of their community and many said that the condition had stopped them going out altogether, taking exercise, using public transport and shopping.

Almost one in ten said that they had given up everything.

More than two thirds said the biggest barriers to going out were loss of confidence, worry about becoming confused and getting lost. More than four in ten said they did not want to become a burden on others.

"By taking this onboard it says to the world what an inclusive place Dorchester can be...all it really asks is that staff who come into contact with the public show patience, some understanding and are willing to give people the extra time they might need," said Jo.

The project also aims to tackle many of those concerns by training staff which come into contact with those with dementia, supporting carers and arranging activities to boost confidence and im-

HAVING been brought up and lived in North London for just over 60 years, Irene Roper moved to Lyme Regis after bringing her grandson for a holiday in Charmouth, which she remembered from childhood visits, and after her son started teaching in the area. She moved to the area with Dave, her partner of 30 years, who has sadly since developed dementia and now requires full-time care.

Irene has since spent a lot of time raising awareness for dementia and is thankful for the support of her three sons and seven grandchildren.

She is also heavily involved with the Lyme Regis and Charmouth RNLI Guild, organisers of the annual Lifeboat Week, and below talks about this year's events.

● WHAT did you do before retirement?

My career was spent working with young children and their families. I originally trained as a nursery nurse and went on to become a midwife. I then worked in various children's nurseries and pre-school playgroups before joining my local authority social services, supporting families in need. Eventually, I trained as an early years care and education tutor and taught at a local college before retiring in 2002. I still do some work setting and marking exam papers.

● HOW did you get involved with the RNLI Guild?

Even before I moved to Lyme I was introduced to Jan Dover, who had lived in the same area of North London as me, and she asked if I would like to help during Lifeboat Week. I had always been interested in the work of the RNLI and was happy to join in. The rest, as they say, is history and on moving to Lyme was quickly invited to join the guild committee and become a volunteer at the lifeboat shop.

● WHAT is your role within the guild?

I am now vice-chairman of the guild and my main role is to co-ordinate and organise Lifeboat Week. This starts in October/November every year and ends with the publication of the programme at the end of June, so I will have a couple of months break after each Lifeboat Week and then start all over again for next year! I am also very involved with the team that run the shop. Unfortunately, our volunteer manager recently retired but a dedicated group are keeping it going and if there is anyone out there who would like to take on the manager's role we would love to hear from you. I also love working with all the committee members and crew whose dedication and support is constant. I certainly couldn't do it without them.

● WHY is it important to support the RNLI?

The RNLI is a completely voluntary service with the aim to save lives at sea. It is so much a part of Lyme and other coastal towns and we continually have people coming into the shop who tell us how they have been helped by the various crews around the country. It really is like being part of a large family, some of whom regularly respond to a "shout" to help people in trouble. They need our constant support as without them and the RNLI lifeguards, the town would be a less safe place for everyone to enjoy.

● WHAT do you enjoy about Lifeboat Week?

Lifeboat Week is the highlight of our year and also our main fundraising event. Although it is very hard work, it is my favourite event of the year and I particularly enjoy the bathtub race and looking at the children's pavement art. As well as raising money, I have a chance to meet hundreds of visitors who come especially for Lifeboat Week and, along with all our hard working volunteers, can raise awareness of the work of the RNLI. I will admit to moments of panic but it usually all goes according to plan. One of my favourite moments was talking to a young boy who was with his family registering for the crab fishing competition. He was one of the last to register and, on handing him ticket number 88, he promptly burst into tears. When asked what was wrong he said "I won't be able to catch 88 crabs!" All was quickly explained and off he went, one happy child with his line and bucket.

● WHAT do you think the highlights will be this year?

I'm sure that weather permitting the RAF Falcons and the Red Arrows will put on their usual magnificent displays. However, the return of the tug o' war between the lifeboat crew and the coastguards across the harbour entrance is always a great sight and members of the crew sitting in stocks while having wet sponges thrown at them should prove great fun!

● ARE there any new events this year?

This year sees the introduction of some new events including fossil polishing arranged by the museum, the Chesil Flying Club will be flying illuminated model planes and there will be a performance by The Luggers, a local group of ukulele players who are quickly becoming a popular attraction at lots of venues.

● WHAT are your other personal interests?

When I have time I love to settle down with a good book and am a member of a reading group in Axminster. I enjoy knitting, swimming and writing (but not for publication) and I am also on the Uplyme WI Committee, writing the monthly meeting reports. It's not all jam and "Jerusalem" and I have learnt so much from the various speakers.

● WHAT do you like about Lyme Regis?

Lyme Regis is one of the friendliest and welcoming places I know. I have made so many friends since moving here. For such a small town, there are so many events and nearly all of them are run by volunteers. I am constantly amazed at the generosity of the people and particularly the support they give to the RNLI.

● WHAT do you think it's missing?

Apart from a couple of moving pavements to help get up the hills! I really would like to see the establishment of an exciting and challenging children's adventure playground with dedicated areas for different age groups. We are frequently asked in the shop where is the nearest play area for children? If ever one were to be built I would love to get involved in the planning.

Wind farm plans divide opinion

PLANS for wind turbines on the edge of Dorchester are now expected to be submitted to planners within weeks.

Broadview Energy Limited, the developer behind the proposed Slycer's Lane wind farm project want to put up six wind turbines between Dorchester and Charminster, each one about 350 feet tall.

Opinion in the area has

by Trevor Bevens

been divided with a local group and the Dorset Campaign to Protect Rural England (CPRE) pledged to fight the plans and, more recently, a pro-wind power group set up to support it.

Both sides are running email campaigns to get their supporters to put their views in to the district council once the plans have been formally submitted.

Talking about the recent round of public consultations a company spokesman said: "Broadview was pleased with the amount of constructive feedback received throughout the events, particularly in relation to its plans to offer the community an opportunity to own a share in the project and therefore share in the profits."

Project Manager Tom Cosgrove said that if the project goes ahead he expects it to generate enough renewable electricity to power over 8,300 average homes. "The 2011 census recorded 8,996 homes in Dorchester and therefore we expect the six turbines to generate the equivalent to a very significant proportion of domestic electricity consumption in the county town," he said.

Further meetings are being held by the company including a workshop at the Herrison Hall, Charlton Down from 5.30pm to 7.30pm on July 7th, to look at how television reception might be affected by the masts. The company claim they have engineered the layout to stop this happening.

There will also be a community meeting at Kingston Maurward College on July 15th from 7pm-9pm and a planning process meeting at Charminster Village Hall from 6pm to 7pm on July 25th with another community meeting in the hall from 7pm-9pm on August 19th.

Further details are available on Broadview's website www.slyerslanewindfarm.com or are available by contacting Claire Shears at Broadview on 020 7268 9910.

Church in need of £30,000 for flood damage repairs

FLASHBACK to the flooding at Charminster church in February

AN estimated £30,000 will need to be raised to help pay for repairs to the flood-damaged church at Charminster.

The Grade One listed building saw up to ten inches of water inside, damaging the wooden parquet floor, stone columns, pews and other items during the January storms.

Grants and insurance will meet some of the estimated £50,000 cost, but £30,000 will need to be raised locally.

Services are still being held in the village hall because of the damage.

The Environment Agency is planning to repair and replace the Grade Two listed bridge opposite the church which has been blamed for the flooding because its low arches were too small to carry the floodwaters away. If it gets planning permission a new bridge could be in place by the autumn of 2015.

The Chestnut House Nursing Home, in Charlton Down, is holding two events on July 5th at the home and Wolfedale Golf Club to help raise funds for the church appeal.

Vandals caught in the act made to repair damage

TWO young men who were caught in the act of causing criminal damage to the sub-station on Holmead Walk, Poundbury by a PCSO on cycle patrol have been made to repair their damage.

Both returned with a tin of paint and paint brushes to paint over the damage that they caused.

Dorchester Police say the incident was tackled using the Community Resolution system, recently introduced. This allows arresting officers the choice to deal with offenders on the spot. The system also keeps first time offenders out of the Criminal Justice system which does not damage their job prospects for the future.

prove fitness levels. One project being investigated is a dementia friendly cycling project for younger sufferers.

Dorchester Chamber of Commerce has backed the project and is encouraging all its members to join the scheme. Stickers bearing a blue Forget Me Not flower will soon start appearing at shops and businesses who have signed up to the scheme. Dorchester BID is also putting its weight behind the project and a leaflet for the training pack for staff has been sponsored by Poundbury-based Bluebird Care.

"The overall feeling I am getting is that people really do see the sense of this and want to do it, there has been no negativity," said Jo.

One of the first to train all its staff and volunteers is the Dorset County Museum where talks are also being held about putting on a special reminiscence display for those with dementia.

Dorchester Library staff are being offered training and local stores will be asked to follow the example of one of the national chains in setting up a dementia friendly till.

Further information can be obtained from the Alzheimer's Society local office on Dorchester (01305) 259740.

Similar schemes are also being planned for Weymouth and Portland and Sherborne.

College helps farmers to stay wise

THE first rural crime and fire prevention centre in Dorset - Farmwise - has been launched at Kingston Maurward College, Dorchester.

Based at Stinsford Farm, the college's own working farm, the centre will provide farmers and owners of rural businesses a chance to receive crime and fire prevention advice including a presentation followed by a tour of the farm.

During the tour visitors will be shown examples of good and bad practices, and preventative measures and equipment that they can apply to their own businesses.

They will see buildings and equipment fitted with a variety of security devices including recommended padlocks, trackers and alarms that can be used to detect the theft of fuel.

The tour will also include identifying the possible cause of fire. Over half of the arson cases in Dorset each year involve farm buildings or equipment.

Dorset Police Crime Prevention and Design Advisor, Debbie Oldfield, said: "Dorset Police recognise the huge impact crime can have on a rural business, and in joining together with Dorset Fire and Rescue Service, Kingston Maurward College and the Dorset Local Authorities, we hope to make farmers in particular aware of the need for crime and fire prevention."

Martha Perry from the Dorset Community Safety Partnership led the first tour of the site with guests that included High Sherriff Jane Stitchbury, Kingston Maurward College Principal Claire Davison and representatives from the NFU (National Farmers Union).

For more details or a Farmwise tour please contact Jenny Goldsack@kmc.ac.uk or call 01305 215196 / 07803064477.

Creating a future for young and old

NEW life is being breathed into a former rural activities centre at Whitfield on the edge of Dorchester.

The former NHS therapeutic centre has been closed for around 18 months – but has now been taken on by Future Roots, a not for profit group which runs the successful Rylands Farm project near Sherborne for disadvantaged people.

by Trevor Bevens

The site will offer opportunities for young people, people of all ages with learning difficulties, older people, those with disabilities and offenders.

Director of Future Roots Julie MacDougall said the chance to take on the centre was too good to miss – even though it could pose a financial risk.

She said it offers Future Roots the chance to extend its work and the type of client groups it works with. She is hoping the local community will back the idea offering their time, money and services and goods by way of a donation.

The group has been running Rylands Farm near Sherborne for almost a decade – a site which is visited each week by around a hundred young people and up to 50 older people with its successful Countrymen and Country Women clubs. Julie came to the project after a career in social services.

The Whitfield site has been leased for three years and at the end of that period the NHS will assess whether or not the centre is worth continuing with.

With four acres at their disposal the site offers plenty of opportunity for horticultural activities, allotments and commercial growing. Importantly the site also has a kitchen, dining and meeting rooms, craft rooms and a potter's wheel and kiln.

Day to day management will be down to Julie Plumley, another Future Roots director, who confesses that one of her early lessons is that there simply isn't enough hours in the day to do everything which needs to be done.

"But when I look at the progress we have made in such a short time it really is remarkable...so many people have just called up and offered to help," she said.

Both women believe in the therapeutic benefits of working in the countryside and supporting people in a natural environment.

They will be working with local groups such as the Alzheimer's Society, Dorchester Opportunity Centre and Fresh Start – as well as individuals.

All volunteers at the centre will be checked by the Disclosure and Barring Service and the centre's services will need to be run mainly by volunteers because of the cost of professional staff.

The aim is that the centre should break-even – selling fruit and vegetables it produces, offering the base for meetings and catering for meetings and producing items for sale such as hanging baskets.

Some of these enterprises may be arranged on a share basis, with people using the facilities and giving Future Roots a percentage of any sales.

Those behind Whitfield are also hoping to rent out some of its space to similar organisations and to offer meeting rooms on a commercial basis.

There is also the need for support from local people and organisations and donations in kind – such as carpets and flooring, sand, gravel, cement. Those with skills for everything from building work to a potter and artists would also be welcome to lead groups.

All added up the centre is expected to cost in the region of £50,000 a year to run.

The centre will be used by all age groups – plans are being made for a group of older people to come along once a week; for young parents to visit and learn how to prepare and cook fresh food and, if needed, be given some help with their parenting skills. One of the core groups will be those with learning difficulties or mental health issues.

Support from the project has come from many quarters – including the Franciscan brothers at

■ JULIE MacDougall at the Whitfield centre

Hillfield Friary who organised an event to raise money to support the centre.

An open day is being planned – on August 27th when Dorchester Mayor, Peter Mann will be going along to open the event and tour the site.

Further information can be obtained by calling the centre office on (01305) 251731 or email either julie.macdougall@futrurroots.net or julie@futrurroots.net.

Young volunteers make a difference

■ BOB Protheroe opening the improved garden area at Greenwood Independent Living centre with volunteers from the Prince's Trust

A GARDEN at a local day centre for people with disabilities has been given a complete make-over by young members of The Prince's Trust.

Despite heavy downpours, 13 young people worked for two weeks transforming the garden at The Greenwood Independent Living Centre in Maiden Castle Road, Dorchester.

The official opening was conducted by Bob Protheroe, one of the people who uses the centre, who had the honour of cutting the red ribbon in front of local dignitaries and invited guests.

Jasmine Roberts, 19, spoke on behalf of the young members and explained how the project came about.

She thanked the local companies who had donated funds and materials for the project, and also the clients at the Greenwood Centre for their help and enthusiasm during the work.

Team Leader of the Prince's Trust course, Andy Dukes, said: "Too many young people feel they don't have any skills and talents, and feel they'll never amount to anything. The Prince's Trust programme really helps them to turn their lives around; helping them into work, education or training.

"The team used their initiative and raised £1,000 for the cost of materials by bag packing at a local supermarkets and then approaching companies in the area for donations.

They couldn't have done what they have without the help from generous companies including Dorchester Timber, B&Q, Synergy Housing and Travis Perkins. We would like to thank them all for their generosity.

"It shows what fantastic community spirit Dorset has."

Alison Walker, manager at the Greenwood Centre, said: "The garden has had a fantastic make-over thanks to the youngsters from the Prince's Trust programme. They have been very creative and have shown great consideration for the people who will enjoy the garden in the future. We are very grateful for their hard work and we hope they will keep in touch."

Help needed at blind club

EXTRA help is needed for the Dorchester Blind Club which meets on the fourth Thursday of every month between 2pm and 4pm.

The club is losing its leader, Helen Basson after a loss of funding for the Dorset Blind Association.

Usually the get-togethers are held at Acland Court but the club also has a summer and a winter outing as well.

"We normally get around 15 people come along although we have more than 20 on the books," said Helen who has been involved with the Dorchester club for around eight years.

"People seem to enjoy it. For many it's a chance to get out of their home and to have a pleasant afternoon with their friends."

The club is assisted by four or five volunteers, each having undertaken a short sight awareness course.

Many of the volunteers also pick up club members from their homes and take them back at the end of the session.

More of these helpers

■ DULCIE Hanlon, 93, and volunteer Jan Ring

are also required with potential club members at both Charminster and Puddletown who would like to go along, but are unable to do so without a volunteer driver to transport them.

Each of the drivers is able to claim expenses at 45p a mile.

Typical of the volunteers is Jan Ring who has been helping out at the club for about six years and has also taken on the role of treasurer.

"I get a sense of achievement out of it and feel I am doing a useful job helping other people," she said.

Graham Hopkins also volunteers and has been involved for two years. He came along after asking about vacancies at the Volunteer Centre, liked it and stayed.

Club member Dulcie Hanlon, 93, is usually picked up by Jan and has been coming to the club for about seven years.

"It gives me all the pleasure in the world. Jan and I found we have lots of things in common and we seem to be well suited and she visits me every week at home to check I am ok," said Dulcie.

She says that Helen will be missed as an organiser by all of the club members: "She is a real doer...she's quite loud and the right person for the job."

Full training and support is being offered for a new club organiser to replace Helen, together with travel expenses.

Further information about helping with the club is available by calling Jo Randall on 01202 712865.

Time to stop for CommuniTea

DORCHESTER'S first CommuniTea event brewed up a lot of interest.

The event, in the town hall, attracted 18 stalls all with the theme of Health and Wellbeing.

A CommuniTea event was held as an alternative to the monthly community lunch, organised by the Dorchester Area Community Partnership.

By changing the time to later in the day the group says it succeeded in attracting groups and individuals who might be unable to attend a lunchtime event.

Displays included Sailability, which offers local sailing for people with disabilities; Dementia Alliance; Union Learn;

Dorset Fire & Rescue; CLS and the British Red Cross, among others.

The event included a free cream tea and time for networking and sharing information.

Sending tools to Africa on a mission

A DORCHESTER couple is collecting tools and useful domestic machinery to send to Africa.

John and Wendy Hilton are the local representatives of the charity Tools with a Mission charity (TWAM), which, for 30 years has been sending items to Africa to help people there support themselves.

More than 200 tons of tools were collected last year and were given to African students who complete a vocational training course.

Each student receives a tool kit supplied by TWAM to enable them to support themselves and to earn their own living. Last year some of the items sent to African countries included 3,470 sewing machines with a sewing kit, 360 carpentry kits, 347 typewriters, 370 motor mechanics kits and 245 boxes of haberdashery.

"Recently we were at the waste recycling centre and saw a sewing machine in what appeared to be a good condition. This sewing machine could have made all the difference to a family in Uganda. With a sewing machine parents can earn an income, so the family can afford more food and the children can go to school," said Wendy.

"Unfortunately, due to regulations, we weren't able to buy the machine at the tip as it was electric.

"But please remember if you are moving house or have to clear a home or garage after a family member has died, please do not throw away old tools, as they might be usable. It also means that less needs to go to landfill. Everyone benefits."

Dorchester collectors Mr and Mrs Hilton receive the tools and are also available to talk to groups, who would like to know more about the charity.

Although the charity does ship out items such as forks, spades and hoes, it is less interested in gardening tools such as hedge clippers for which there is little need.

Sewing machines, zips and other items which can be used to make clothes are valued and there is still a need for working typewriters.

For further details or to donate items, contact John and Wendy Hilton on 01305 267098 or email jandwehilton@waitrose.com.

Things to hot up at firefighters' annual fayre

DORCHESTER Fire Station will be holding its fifth annual Dorset Fire Fayre this Saturday, July 5th.

It will take place between 10am and 4pm and is designed to inform, educate and entertain - while providing a great day out for all the family.

The free event will include a main arena where Dorset Fire and Rescue Service and its partners will provide a number of attractions, including a real fire demonstration, a demonstration from the Fire Cadets and a multi-agency road traffic collision demonstration showing how each service responds when there is an incident on Dorset's roads.

There will also be the chance for children to experience what it is like to be a firefighter with the "Blue Light Simulator" and FireFit sessions.

Children can take along their teddies for the teddy bear zip line or volunteer their parents and guardians to abseil from the tower.

There will also be a variety of stalls, emergency service displays and stands from Dorset Police, LV=Streetwise, South West Ambulance Service, the Red Cross, St John Ambulance and others not forgetting face-painting.

Chief Fire Officer, Darran Gunter, said: "The annual Fire Fayre is always a great day out for all the family with a wealth of things to see and do, but with the underlying emphasis on education and prevention. Our partners will also be on hand to make it a really interesting and informative yet fun day."

The headquarters and Dorchester fire station can be found on Peverell Avenue West, Poundbury, DT1 3SU.

All profits from the event will go to the Fire Fighters Charity.

Georgie is NFU student of the year

A 25-year-old student has won the NFU Agricultural Student of the Year Competition at Kingston Maurward College. Georgie Cossins will get an all-expenses paid trip the Agribex 2015 held in Belgium.

The runners up were Josh Dory and Hilary Hansford.

The award was initiated in 2011 by the NFU in conjunction with C&O and New Holland Tractors, who wanted to support a credible accreditation that would aid young farmers in their future careers.

The 16 participating students, all studying the second year Level 3 Extended National Diploma in Agriculture, competed against one another in a day of tasks. These included livestock, machinery and estate skills tasks, a 50-question theory test, followed by an interview with a panel of judges including the NFU's Rupert Rees and C&O Tractors' Matthew Holland.

Georgie said "It was a complete shock to win! I think the reason was because of the extracurricular things I've done during the course. I'm so pleased; it feels like this award is in recognition of all my hard work."

As well as achieving consistently high grades during her course, Georgie also found time to compete in the RABDF and Farmplanner competitions and write a regular agricultural column for a local paper as well as work at the family's mixed farm.

Kingston Maurward College principal, Clare Davison, said: "This is an excellent achievement and the students' commitment and success is a real accomplishment for the college."

■ NEW Rector of the Watercombe Benefice, Reverend Dominic Doble welcomed by parishioners

Watercombe Benefice welcomes new rector

By Trevor Bevins

PARISHONERS of the Watercombe Benefice gathered in St Martin's Church Broadmayne to take part in The Institution, Induction and Installation of the Reverend Dominic Doble as Rector of the Watercombe Benefice.

The group were joined by family and friends of Reverend Doble from Crediton,

The service was conducted by The Bishop of Sherborne, The Right Reverend Graham Kings and the Archdeacon of Sherborne, The Venerable Paul Taylor.

A full church joined together in promising to share with Dominic in the daily worship, life and work of the church. A welcome was extended to Dominic and his wife Liz from community representatives across the Benefice.

In Compass, the Benefice magazine, the new Rector wrote: "I am a keen musician with a particular love of both folk and sacred choral styles. After graduating from agricultural college at Wye, Kent, I began learning traditional land management skills. My rural career with countryside charities and local government ended with a spell on the footpaths of Cambridge.

"Coming to faith as a child, I have experience of many denominations and styles of worship. This will help me in leading both the traditional and more 'family friendly' services. I have a heart to work with all people and organisations that feel they would benefit from our support.

"I am really thrilled to have been asked to join in with, and lead, all that is going on in the communities from Holworth to West Knighton, Warmwell, and Owermoigne to Broamayne. There is a verse in the Bible that says: 'No eye has seen and no ear has heard what God has prepared for us.' I think that is really exciting!"

Young pianist is a credit to town

JOHN Wilson recently performed a piano recital in St Mary's Church here in Dorchester.

Organised at a very few day's notice on a fine and warm early summer's afternoon it was sparsely attended. It is hoped that John will perform again in the county museum later in the year and if he does, don't miss it.

He played for about an hour, all his own compositions, and all from memory. It is fair to say that it was predominately percussive rather than lyrical, but it was all extremely impressive.

John is a local boy and I have known his family for very many years. He is currently studying music in Plymouth and he undoubtedly deserves every encouragement and has much talent to be admired.

My wife and I have a piano in our house but could never even dream of playing like John, let alone composing.

He is a credit to himself, his family and to Dorchester.

It's a knockout fundraiser for charity

■ FRIST prize winners, the Wild Boys Team

■ SECOND place winners, Smells Like Team Spirit Team

DORSET disabilities charity, Diverse Abilities Plus, has successfully held its second It's a Knockout challenge in Weymouth with 17 teams taking place.

The event, supported by Weymouth and Portland council and Wessex FM, replicated the BBC TV show that aired during the 1960s and 1980s.

Teams of up to 12 took on a number of challenges starting with a warm up leading to three team captains undertaking a dance off to win points!

Following that all teams took part in six games - Penguin Pursuit, Slippery Summit, Medieval Madness, Hats On, Wacky Waiters and Crazy Climbers - and competed against the other teams to win points and be crowned first, second or third.

The event was won by the Wild Boys team with Smells Like Team Spirit second and Blood, Sweat then Beers third.

DAP events fundraiser Sharon Wells said: "We were really pleased with the turnout at the event. Seventeen teams taking part was just fantastic."

"We have already had a number of the teams interested in next year's event so if you think you can take on the crazy challenges, get in touch! Everyone that took part had a great time and as well as having fun were actively supporting the work of Diverse Abilities."

Paula Street, a parent of a child that attends Langside School - one of the Diverse Abilities services - took part in the event and said: "We had a fantastic day at It's a Knockout in aid of Diverse Abilities - a great charity that supports my daughter."

"Our team - the DAP Dozen - included a number of parents with children supported by the charity and we wanted to get involved and help raise funds while having a great time together. We hope lots of people see what fun it was and sign up for next year's event."

The charity also has many other events up and coming during this year. Find out more at www.diverseabilitiesplus.org.uk/events.

Police consultation begins on dealing with low level crime

A THREE month consultation on how anti-social behaviour and low level crime is dealt with in the county has started.

Dorset Police and Crime Commissioner, Martyn Underhill, will be holding focus groups and conducting an online survey to get the views of local people.

Changes to the law mean that all Police Commissioners now have to develop a list of community remedies and, from this autumn, victims will be able to select the punishment for the offender from a series of options.

These could include measures such as repairing damage to property, cleaning up graffiti or receiving a punishment proportionate to the crime.

Victims can also ask the offender direct questions, mediate or receive an apology.

By bringing together the offender with the victim of their crime, it's hoped they will better understand the impact of their actions.

Local focus groups will be held in Dorchester on July 15th and Weymouth on July 25th.

Those who would like to take part are asked to call 01202 223966.

Pothole repair funding boost

DORSET County Council has received an extra £3million to help repair potholes.

It brings the total to just under £9million to repair and resurface the county's roads.

Councillor Spencer Flower, Leader of Dorset County Council, said: "I was pleased with the feedback we received about our bid the team worked hard to get it right...We will be able to extend the current resurfacing and drainage repair programme with a view to finishing by Christmas."

The county has also received £184,813 from the severe weather recovery scheme for the community impact of the storms.

Further information about the county council bid application can be found at www.dorsetforyou.com/pothole-bid.

Students donate £522 to two worthy causes

CHEQUES totalling more than £500 have been presented by Kingston Maurward students to Dorset County Hospital and a road safety charity.

Level three diploma in administration students raised the money as part of their final project.

The cheques totalling £522 were presented by students to Julie Goodall from Dorset County Hospital's Kingfisher Ward, and PCSO Sarah Pilcher representing road safety charity Brake.

On behalf of Brake, Trevor Felgate, said: "Brake is a tiny charity doing a huge amount of work with schools and professional people, making an enormous difference to road safety, and will benefit greatly from this donation."

Growing success with Waitrose

LOCAL pupils visiting the Waitrose store at Dorchester – some with their free seed kits given to them by the store

WAITROSE, Dorchester has been encouraging local school children to grow their own fruit and vegetables by giving away free seed kits.

The branch also hosted a visit for pupils from five primary schools in the Weymouth and Dorchester area to teach them more about growing local produce.

Pupils were tested in a lively "Guess the Fruit and Veg" quiz that gave children the opportunity to taste and identify the name of some exotic fruits and different varieties of vegetables.

The schools were treated to a behind the scenes tour, exploring the branch's loading bay and giant refrigeration units.

Each school was given a free seed kit to use in their vegetable garden, donated through funds raised through the Waitrose Community Matters "green token" scheme.

Every month each Waitrose branch donates £1,000 to charities or good causes nominated by the local community. Customers are invited to place green tokens into boxes for their chosen group and the money is divided up based on the amount of tokens each cause receives.

Melanie Roberts, Waitrose Dorchester Partner Co-ordination Manager, said: "It's great to see children learning about where their food comes from.

"To encourage pupils to consider the role nature plays in growing our food, we also included a packet of wildflower seeds which attract bees and butterflies."

Thankyou speech for top orators

TWO leading members of Casterbridge Speakers have been honoured by the club for their commitment.

The group meet twice a month at the Wessex Royale, Dorchester and is one of four Toastmaster International clubs in Dorset. It has earned a Distinguished Club award with Toastmasters International, one of only 20 in the country to do so.

Members showed their appreciation to two leaders in the club - Caroline Brewer, from Weymouth, who has been president during the past year, who was recognised for her diligence, eloquence and diplomacy.

Steve Graham, from Puddletown, was thanked for his commitment since co-founding the club in 2008 and his dedication as vice president of education in supporting the learning of club members.

He has also been area governor for the last year. This role has gone again to a Casterbridge Speaker member, David Smith.

CASTERBRIDGE Speakers members Caroline Brewer and Steve Graham – thanked by club members for their dedication to the group

Pupils vote for favourite book

MORE than 500 youngsters from schools across Dorset have voted for their favourite book in this year's New Horizons Book Award.

The biennial award, organised by Dorset County Council's library service, encourages young people to explore some of the best fiction for nine to 13-year-olds.

Selected from a shortlist of six, this year's winning novel was "I'm Dougal Trump... and it's not my fault" and author Jackie Marchant accepted the award on Dougal's behalf.

Councillor Colin Jamieson, Dorset County Council's cabinet member for community services, said the New Horizons Book Award was a "wonderful initiative" and added: "It's all about engaging children in reading for fun and developing a wider love for reading."

"It is wonderful to see them using their imagination to develop their writing skill by exposure to good books."

"It was great that so many young people took part, and put pen to paper, telling us their own imaginative stories."

The use of colour in your home...

COLOUR is perhaps the most personal and dramatic statement you can make in your home.

When it comes to decorating, poring over paint charts is undoubtedly one of the most exciting things, and the moment when you first take the lid off that tin of paint is even better. Colour can create moods, and even, many people believe, improve your mental well-being.

Choice

It doesn't seem that long ago that the choice for colour was either magnolia or 'tint with a hint'. Nowadays there are endless possibilities and, as with clothes, the major companies bring out new colours each season. One minute acid green is all the rage, the next it's the 'new neutrals'. It is easy to be overwhelmed by the choice. Even sticking to tried and tested white can have its pitfalls.

Pitfalls

You may know exactly which colours you want to use but you can still hit a stumbling block. Why does the colour that looked so great in the tin look insipid and lifeless on the walls? What's more, you've spent hours trying to get everything to match exactly, but your room has just ended up looking bland.

Colour schemes

Planning and carrying out your own colour schemes is easy once you understand the principles of colour. Interior designers often seem to have a built-in instinct for what goes with what, and it's true, relying on your instincts and playing around is one of the best ways of learning. But although paint is relatively cheap, doing out a whole room with soft furnishings and accessories only to realise it doesn't work, can be an expensive mistake. Designers have been trained and many use a simple colour wheel to make sure their designs are going to work.

If you're confused about colour, follow our simple rules and you need never leave colour to chance again. And once you know the rules, have fun breaking them.

Colour is a deeply personal thing - what makes you swoon, might make someone else sick. If you've ever wondered why you feel listless in your lounge or happy in your hall, delve into colour psychology.

Battens

BATTENS Jewellers will, this year, notch up 40 years of service to the West Dorset public.

A family business in every sense of the word, proprietor Richard Batten joined the original clock repair business his Father had run since the 1950's.

Richard began his apprenticeship in 1969 serving under his father and at the same time studying a British Horological Institute course.

In 1974 he opened his first shop in West Street Bridport and in 1988 re-located the business to its present address in South Street. This allowed for the creation of a larger display area with a purpose built and newly equipped clock repair workshop.

Both of Richard's daughters are now involved with running the Jewellery business together with his wife, Katalin, which now leaves him free to indulge his passion for clocks and their restoration.

Meanwhile the shop offers a wide range of both antique and modern jewellery, gold, silver, pearls and also stocks watches by Pulsar and Seiko together with our own Swiss made "Battens" brand. Not forgetting our vintage and classic pre-owned selection from Rolex, Omega etc.

The Stable

LOCATED behind the famous Bull Hotel in East Street sits the most sociable eatery in Bridport, The Stable. It's simple food, that's simply amazing. They proudly source prime local ingredients from Dorset's finest growers and producers to create their totally unique, West Country inspired dishes.

They are pretty serious about

Cider too, it's an integral part of The Stable. That's why they offer such a huge variety. "Hopefully you'll start your love affair with the wonderful nectar, right here in Dorset's cathedral to cider. We also have a fine selection of other drinks, but you'd be mad not to try a cider."

Open from midday, every day, from now until the end of the summer, The Stable will be serving up the best pizzas in town.

If it's outstanding value for money you're after, then head down to the Stable any time after 5pm on a Tuesday night. Tuck in Tuesday as it's known, lets you have any pizza or pie, half a pint of cider, and a side salad for just £10! There's no better way to spend your Tuesday evening. Come and see what all the fuss is about...

Oleo Bodycare

Oleo Bodycare scoops Gold & Silver at National Awards

THERE'S cause to celebrate at Oleo Bodycare, the Bridport-based skin care company, founded by professional aromatherapist, Olivia Chapman. It has just been announced by The Green Parent Magazine that Olivia has won the highest accolade - The Gold Beauty Award 2014 for her hand-blended Rosemary & Nettle Hair Shampoo. And, if that was not praise enough, she also received the Silver Award for her Exhilarating Shower Gel.

The Green Parent Beauty Awards search for the cleanest, greenest and most effective natural products in a range of categories. The magazine has an independent panel of beauty experts to try out each of the submitted products and write about their experiences. After a sufficient period of testing, they select the award winners in each category.

Olivia was told by the judges that she was up against a large number of entrants - many of them long-established, big names in the beauty industry, and, that as small one-(wo)man business, she had done remarkably well.

Olivia said "I am over the moon at winning these awards. It just goes to show that with a lot of hard work and a passion for what you are doing, anything is achievable. It gives my products credence, and confidence for my customers when there is such a huge choice of toiletries out there to choose from." She went on to add "I have been selling my products in Bridport Market every Saturday for several years, and now have a lovely, loyal group of customers. I would like to thank them all so much for their support."

Bridport links with Totnes and Frome in Community-led development

BRIDPORT'S social enterprise group Enterprise St Michael's will be presenting a free event at the Electric Palace: 'Community Regeneration', featuring visiting speakers from Totnes and Frome.

The talks are to be followed by the first full screening of a new short film by Adam Sliwa Made in Bridport.

After five years of campaigning, the local community in Totnes have succeeded in purchasing the Dairy Crest industrial site in order to develop it for economic, social and environmental benefit to the town of Totnes.

'Atmos Project' manager, Dave Chapman will be giving a talk on how communities are able to initiate appropriate development as has been achieved through the Transition Towns Network and 'Reconomy' in Totnes, and in dozens of other towns around the globe.

The current Mayor of Frome, Peter Macfadyen who founded 'Independents for Frome' and is the author of Flat-pack Democracy will be speaking on Local Community initiatives and Social Justice.

Also speaking is Tim Crabtree of Wessex Community Assets, founder of Local Food Links, and lecturer at the Schumacher College. Tim will be putting the case for Bridport's great opportunity to regenerate through social enterprise.

The short film Made in Bridport draws attention to the town's rich legacy of manufacturing and the dazzling emergence of creative industries and trade, of which St Michael's Trading Estate remains a key player, even in the absence of re-investment and under the continuing threat of demolition.

The event, 'Community Regeneration' will take place at the Electric Palace, 6.30pm on Monday 7th July. Doors open 6pm. Free entry - donations welcome. Bar and local food available. All welcome.

Bothen Hill Produce

BOTHEN Hill Produce is a family-run farm producing organic vegetables all the year round situated under Bothen Hill in Bothenhampton. Founded in 2000 and registered with the Soil Association, the season starts in April with asparagus. This is followed by new potatoes, carrots, peas, beans and courgettes and then, as the season progresses, a wide range of salads, squash and root vegetables.

Christmas is turkey time, with our home-reared free range bronze turkeys which we raise from day old chicks.

Vegetables are marketed by a weekly veg box scheme which operates in the Bridport area, through Modbury Farm Shop at Burton, Out of Town Shop in Beaminster and also Millers Farm Shop in Kilmington. In addition Bothen Hill Produce attends the Farmers' Market held in Bridport on the second Saturday of each month and every Friday morning the fresh, seasonal vegetables are available to purchase from the farm gate.

As well as vegetables, the family have recently planted some 8000 trees on the slopes of Bothen Hill; this comprises a mixed native broadleaved woodland.

Bridport Music

FIRST time visitors to our shop have described us as a "musical Aladdin's cave". And that pretty much sums us up, as there's barely a square inch of space left to display anything - including the ceiling! Our rule of thumb is, if it's music-related and we think there's a chance somebody will want it, then we'll stock it. This has led to us having some weird and wonderful things in the shop which you wouldn't normally expect to find in a music shop in a town the size of Bridport. We are a family business and have been trading for nearly 40 years. On the recorded music side of the business the shop has built up a reputation for being able to obtain recordings, which people are often unable to find elsewhere. A superior ordering service is offered with most items being obtained within one week. Bridport Music has built up expertise in tracking down more unusual products. This can take longer but the staff rarely admit defeat. The shop stocks a varied range of CDs and music DVDs - current or new and back catalogue including Rock & Pop, Classical, Jazz, Folk, Blues, Dance, Irish, Country, Reggae, World etc.

The shop also stocks a constantly expanding range of musical instruments, books and accessories for the giging musician, beginner or enthusiastic amateur. As well as a range of affordable instruments we stock instrument stands, amplifiers, leads, cases, strings, reeds, effects pedals, straps and spare parts. At the last count we had over 30 different ukuleles in stock! To this you can add a great range of Roberts analogue and digital radios, Sennheiser headphones, batteries etc. Vinyl records have seen a resurgence lately so we now stock a range of new 180g vinyl releases, vinyl cleaning products, replacement styli, sleeves and even a few turntables! Minor guitar repairs are undertaken - if you have a guitar that isn't playable let us take a look at it for you. Our charges are very competitive. Please contact the friendly staff for further details on 01308 425707.

INTERNATIONAL GUITARIST TO PERFORM AT DORSET COUNTY MUSEUM

DORSET County Museum is pleased to announce a forthcoming concert by classical guitarist Mark Jennings. The concert will take place on Thursday, July 10th at 1pm in the Museum's atmospheric Victorian Gallery.

Mark has been playing classical guitar for most of his life having started lessons from an early age. He attended the London College of Music, studying classical guitar performance with Carlos Bonell. As a student Mark performed in many public international master classes hosted by distinguished artists. Since leaving music college, he has enjoyed performing in many parts of the UK.

Mark recognizes the importance of being alive to other interests and of having 'broad horizons'. During the 1990s he combined his enthusiasm for performance with studies at Birkbeck College, London where he was gained a degree in History, Philosophy and Politics. After graduation, his interest in philosophy took him to University College London where he was awarded an M.Phil. and Ph.D. in Philosophy.

Mark has enjoyed a variety of successful musical collaborations with other musicians including the Baroque Players, which he co-founded.

More recently he has performed as a guitar duo with Peter Rueffer, founder of The Pro Arte Trio and Music Director of the Dillington International Classical Guitar Festival.

Mark is currently based at Christ's Hospital in West Sussex. He continues to enjoy teaching and classical guitar performance, and welcomes invitations to give recitals or to take part in shared concerts, including invitations to perform to help raise funds for charity.

THE renowned Sunset Café Stompers, one of the best New Orleans-style jazz bands in the West Country, will play a concert at the delightful St Peter's Church, West Knighton near Dorchester on Wednesday, July 9th at 7.30pm.

True stories of those who fought for King and country performed at historic venue

TIME and Tide Theatre Group will perform The King's Shilling at the historic Shire Hall venue in Dorchester on Friday, July 4th, retelling true stories of ordinary folk who have fought for their King and country. From Waterloo to the Great War, these tales of extraordinary Dorset soldiers and women are surprising, humorous and poignant. Poetry, folk songs, parlour ditties and popular tunes complement the retelling of these unique diaries and accounts.

The event will be all the more poignant being set in the historic Shire Hall in Dorchester, which is planned to become an internationally important heritage centre via West Dorset District Council. Made famous for the trial of the Tolpuddle Martyrs in 1834 and Martha Brown in 1856 this venue is steeped in local history and appears today almost as it did in Georgian times. Author Thomas Hardy also sat there as a magistrate.

Time and Tide Theatre Group is a collective of like-minded musicians and performers who produce stories interwoven with folk song, sometimes using local tales such as the Tolpuddle Martyrs or shipwrecks on the south coast, but always concentrating on the 'local' people – those who have not left buildings or books, only their songs and stories for us to remember them by. These 'folk-dramas' have been performed at arts and folk festivals and arts venues throughout the south and south west of England.

The King's Shilling by Time and Tide is performed at Dorchester Shire Hall Friday, July 4th, 8pm. To book tickets visit www.dorchesterarts.org.uk or call Box Office 01305 266 926

Comedy Café goes Green

ESCAPE the World Cup with another night of hilarious stand up at the Bridport Arts Centre comedy café this Friday.

The very funny Matt Green will be coming to Bridport this week to share his caustic wit and wickedly funny comedy with the café crowd. The perfect antidote for those who can't stand another night in front of the football.

Known for his charismatic and personable style on stage, Matt Green's stand up is as intelligent as it is funny, making him a popular headliner in arts centre across the UK.

Matt is also a successful comic actor with appearances in a number of the UK's best loved TV shows including Extras and Harry Hill's TV Burp.

Opening the show will be the equally funny Mark Palmer. Hailing from South Africa, Mark has universal appeal with comedic observations on everyday life that will amuse teenagers and their grandparents alike.

As always the line up will be completed by two fresh new comedy acts, making their first tentative steps into stand up comedy, and resident MC Tom Glover.

The July Bridport Arts Centre Comedy Café will be at 8pm this Friday, July 4th.

Tickets are available from the box office on 01308 424204, priced £7 adults/£5 concessions.

Tom Glover will also be previewing his Edinburgh show at the Arts Centre on Wednesday, July 16th.

More star comedy acts come to Dorchester

AFTER tickets sold in record time for the upcoming comedy act Alan Carr, Dorchester Arts looks forward to welcoming more star acts in the autumn season.

Weymouth born Alan Carr, famously known for his Chatty Man television show, will be taking to the stage on Thursday 3rd July at the Corn Exchange. Tickets sold out within a matter of hours for this exciting last minute addition to the Dorchester Arts summer programme.

Having enjoyed a long history of recognisable comedy acts in the past with Jo Brand, Jack Dee and Eddie Izzard, Dorchester Arts is no stranger to hosting big name acts appealing to the local appetite for quality comedy events.

More laughs are planned for the autumn season featuring the Simon Evans star of C4's Stand Up For The Week, Mark Steel who is busy preparing a piece specifically about Dorchester, award winning comedian Marcus Brigstocke and TV comedienne star Shappi Khorsandi.

Mark Smith who coordinates a regular stand up night, Stand Up Dorchester and the administrator at Dorchester Arts says, 'We are really excited about this strong season of comedy in the autumn. It's great for the county town to welcome such big names to the area. We are particularly excited to see Mark Steel who is basing his performance on Dorchester as part of his Radio 4 series'.

Tickets have already gone on sale for the autumn comedy season and are proving popular so audiences are encouraged to book well in advance.

Catch the Vibe

Jazz on a Summers Day; Great Live Music and living History

IT'S over fifty years since Brits first saw the film that launched 100 festivals, Jazz on a Summer's Day. This month it will be screened at Bridport Arts Centre, followed by a concert with the Frank Griffith Five who will be recreating some of the music captured in the film.

The Arts Centre will be offering hot dogs and root beers in the interval, making it an unusual and exciting event for film lovers, jazz aficionados and fans of beat culture.

The classic movie was filmed at the Newport Jazz Festival of 1958 by fashion photographer Bert Stern, best known as the man who took the last photos of Marilyn Monroe. Shot in colour the film takes the you through the weekend from set up, through to Mahalia Jackson's finale, a rendition of The Lord's Prayer.

It documents musicians including Thelonious Monk, Sonny Stitt, Anita O'Day, Dinah Washington, Gerry Mulligan, Chuck Berry, Louis Armstrong, Duke Ellington, Dave Brubeck and Miles Davis.

It offers you the chance to see as well as hear jazz heroes play. Since most of the legends are dead, it's the closest we have to experiencing a live gig. Anita O'Day teeters on to the stage in a tight black dress, high heels, feathery hat and white gloves and performs Sweet Georgia Brown.

More than a film about music, it offers a slice of 1950s American life. In the audience couples kiss in the dark, beatniks smoke joints and shake their heads and girls with ponytails in pedal pushers jive on the rooftops of Newport.

Jazz On A Summer's Day will be shown at 5.30pm on Sunday, July 19th, followed by the Frank Griffith Five in concert at 8pm.

Tickets to the concert and film are £19, £18 for members, and £16 concessions.

Ticket to concert only £15/ £15 Member/ £12 concessions. Tickets to the film only are £6, £5 for members and Concessions.

Bridport Arts Centre box office (01308) 424204 www.bridport-arts.com.

Fast and Furious Fiddle Fun!

HAILING from Canada, Gordie MacKeeman & His Rhythm Boys serve up old-time roots music with an energy level that practically yanks you out of your seat by the collar.

Most people would struggle to even get a single note out of a fiddle. Very few can play at a blistering, blink-and-you've-missed-four-bars pace. And only Gordie MacKeeman can play at this velocity with the fiddle behind his back or when standing on top of his band-mate's double bass.

Collectively they specialise in old-timey, hillbilly and Western Swing, but usually play with a ferocity that, in a live setting, is nigh on impossible for your body to ignore. Such is the verve and daring of Gordie's crew that the audience's limbs are involuntary thrust into action, forcing all those within earshot to stomp along to the vintage high-octane sound.

The elastic-legged bandleader is a real showman and his live sets are to remember.

"These lads from PEI have taken their great musical skill and love for the repertoire and added engaging, sometimes jaw-dropping, stagecraft and showmanship. Man for man there may not be a better roots band playing in Canada today. Booking them was a no-brainer." – Matthew Large, Montreal's Folk Festival on the Canal.

Tuesday 15th July 2014, 8pm. Tickets £12/£11 members/ £10 concessions. Bridport Arts Centre's Box Office (01308) 424204 www.bridport-arts.com

208 GTi 30th Anniversary Limited Edition: The Most Radical GTi

▲ PEUGEOT 208 GTi 30th Anniversary Limited Edition

PEUGEOT unveiled the 208 GTi 30th anniversary Limited Edition on the occasion of the 2014 Goodwood Festival of Speed. 30 years after the 205 GTi, Peugeot reinterprets the iconic GTi in a more radical version of the 208 GTi.

The 208 GTi 30th delivers a more intense driving sensation enhanced with a new Euro6 1.6-litre THP petrol engine developing 300Nm of torque and maximum power increased to a symbolic 208hp. Mated to a six-speed manual gearbox, it has exceptional traction and efficiency assured through the specification of a Torsen differential, specific suspension and steering settings. The exterior can also be distinguished with an optional paint finish – a coupe franche – where the rear is separated distinctively by a sharp dividing line from which the colours are cleanly divided.

Its sporty and assertive temperament can also been seen in its stance and look, in particular by its dual-material livery, separated by a sharp dividing line. It will be presented to the public at the forthcoming 2014 Paris Motor Show, with sales starting in November 2014.

The 208 GTi 30th anniversary Limited Edition made its world debut on display with dynamic demonstrations at the Goodwood Festival of Speed – dynamically in the Supercar & 'First Glimpse' class on the Hillclimb at speed and on static display in the Moving Motor Show showroom – on Friday, Saturday and Sunday. It goes on public display at the next Paris Motor Show in October and will be going on sale in November 2014.

"As with any project of this type, there was a convergence of ideas and needs. Following on from the RCZ R, PEUGEOT Sport proposed that the Brand make a more radical version of the 208 GTi. At the same time the Brand thought about how best to celebrate 30 years of the PEUGEOT GTi in 2014."

Maxime Picat – PEUGEOT Brand CEO.

A year after its commercial launch over 10,000 Peugeot 208 GTi Hatchback cars have been produced, confirming the success of the reinterpretation of the GTi icon and the strategy to offer a well-specified, performance sports model from PEUGEOT in the B Segment.

PEUGEOT has left its mark on the history of motor sport and DNA can be found in the genes of the 208 GTi, as in those of the RCZ, and its R version greatly enhanced by PEUGEOT Sport. As Peugeot celebrates 30 years since the original 205 GTi, it is now the turn for the 208 GTi to benefit from the expertise and racing pedigree of the engineers at Peugeot Sport. They have worked to give it a more radical character with what some call 'extra soul', in response to expectations by driving enthusiasts to have an authentic product with real capability.

A coherent exclusive signature with a more radical temperament

"The 208 GTi 30th builds on the virtues of a strong identity, great attention to detail and in the style of the 208 GTi, and takes on a more radical and brutish fashion, making the link with the incisive character of its dynamic performance," Julien Kerlidou - Product Manager 208.

From the outset, the exclusive and more radical temperament shines through with the 208 GTi 30th. The suspension is lowered by 10mm, the track widened by 22mm at the front and 16mm at the rear, and larger wheels are specified giving it a pronounced sports car posture on the road.

The chic bright chrome finishers on the 208 GTi are replaced by matt black on the 208 GTi 30th, giving it a more brutish look. At the front the same treatment is applied to the grille surround, the fog lamp bezels and door mirror shells. From the side, the lowered stance is accentuated by matt black side skirts and wheel arch extensions that cover new 18" wheels finished with matt black rims. The front wheels house large red PEUGEOT Sport labelled brake calipers. The window trim strip, which finishes with a signature paying homage to the illustrious 205 GTi, is also finished in matt black, while the quarter panel bears a '208 GTi 30th logo'. At the rear, the round twin chrome tail pipes ensure the sound of the new engine is fully expressed to enhance the aural driving experience.

Finally, the 208 GTi 30th could only be finished in colours that identify this sporting world. The interpretation uniting the red and black in a two-tone and dual material treatment is innovative and unique. The front is finished in a textured black, contrasting with the new high-gloss red at the rear. The two colours are divided by a sharp oblique straight-cut line (a 'coupe franche'), as first seen on the Onyx Supercar Concept and reinterpreted on the 308 R and Exalt Concept cars. The 208 GTi 30th will also be available in Pearl White and Ruby Red – historical colours of PEUGEOT GTi cars.

Perfectly consistent with its exterior signature and dynamic character, the interior ambience has a more radical sports character developed for the 208 GTi 30th. The red fading to black finishes on the 208 GTi change to lacquered black. The black door handles with a red line echo the seat belts. High-quality floor mats are trimmed in red, while the front bucket seats are of a form specially developed by PEUGEOT Sport. These seats are trimmed in an exclusive blend of materials, mainly Alcantara, accompanied by black TEP with red stitching and a black dotted mesh pattern with red highlights.

Cricket - Devon League

Norman conquest lays victory platform

◆ CENTURIAN: Dave Norman struck 18 4s in his unbeaten 107. Photo by HOWARD LARCOMBE

UPLYME & LYME REGIS 2ND XI 240 FOR 5
BEAT NORTH DEVON 231 FOR 7
BY NINE RUNS

Devon League 2nd XI Division (E) NORTH Devon were surprised to find a dry wicket at Uplyme after traveling through heavy rain that led to the cancelation many other league games including Uplyme 1st XI at Yelverton writes Eddie Clarke.

On winning the toss they opted to field first on a wicket with a green top that seemed to offer assistance to the bowlers.

Uplyme openers Eddie Clarke and David Norman started steadily and put on a fine first wicket partnership of 110 at drinks.

Clarke reached his half-century first hitting six fours and a six but, after he was run out by a direct hit, the stage was set for Norman to play a dominating innings.

Putting a run of low scores behind him, Norman stroked the ball for 18 boundaries in a superb knock of 107 not out.

He was supported by Steve Batey and Wesley Holmes who both scored 29 to boost the Uplyme total to 240 at the close.

Uplyme again opened with the spin of Ally Rattenbury at one end and the pace of Wallace Blackmore at the other.

It was Blackmore who made the immediate breakthrough when he had Ladd stumped by Clarke without scoring. A second wicket followed when a long hop from Rattenbury was well caught by Harry Jobson on the square leg boundary.

If Uplyme thought victory was a to be a formality they needed to rethink as Sean O'Brien (54) and Edward Mann, (73) put on their own century stand before Wesley Holmes had O'Brien caught by Nic Dinnison at midwicket.

Mann continued to hit the ball cleanly and looked to be taking his side to victory with five overs left and 38 required.

But in the 43rd over, with just 14 needed, Mann tried to farm the strike and was run out after a sharp piece of fielding from Blackmore.

Dinnison ensured that the boundary count was nil in the last over and Uplyme scraped home by nine runs.

At the half way point of the season Rod Holmes' team have recorded four wins and four losses and start the second half of the summer by attempting to complete a the double over Honiton, whilst the 1st XI take on the same opponents at Uplyme.

Lyme Regis Sea Angling Club

Marshall lands a beauty

THERE was ideal weather for the 'Five Go Fishing in Dorset' two-day charter boat competition in Lyme Regis - 28th-29th June.

The target for each angler was the best aggregate score of five species - cod, bass, plaice, pollack and bream.

The reef produced some cracking cod on both days, all falling to Amaretto IV skippered by Steve Sweet. The best two came on a single drift to Mike Rogers and Phil Marshall, weighing in at 18.8lb and 16.5lb respectively.

The wrecks produced the bass and the plaice. Only small pollack were landed throughout the competition and the bream were hard to find.

Gary Wyld managed to winkle one out from Alice Rose skippered by Lewis Hodder.

Number One seed

Lyme Regis Golf with Richard Jackman IN the seniors' GORDON PUTTER MEDAL competition a steady round from Roger Baker, with nett score of 68 saw him walk off with the trophy.

In second place, just one shot behind, was Roy Mathisen and in third with 70 was Mike List.

In the ladies VI CROW STABLEFORD it was a close run thing for Jane Dixon as she claimed the trophy on countback from Hanna Jacobsen, both with 35 points with Anne Humphreys taking third with 34 points.

Last weekend saw the MEN'S CLUB CHAMPIONSHIP, played over two days for the first time.

After the first day George Seed was four shots ahead of his nearest rivals carding a three under par 68 which placed him in pole position in both the gross and the nett competitions.

On day two the pack began to close in, including his father Roger and Stuart Wight. A large crowd gathered to watch the last group come up the 270 yard 18th - Roger and George Seed and last year's double winner David Lyon.

George was two shots ahead of his father and played safe taking two shots to get to the green whereas dad was nearly there in one.

Roger putted and just missed an eagle, meaning that George needed to hold his nerve and the putt and get down in two.

He did this with a gross score of 143, one over, and for the second year running a junior had won the club championship. Roger was second with 144 and Stuart Wight 3rd with 146.

In the nett competition Matthew Watson had two steady rounds to card 135 and win from George Seed 2nd, 137 and Colin Baker 3rd - 140.

The number of juniors in the top 20 is very encouraging for the club, a testimony not only to the hard work put in by club professional Duncan Driver, but the hours they spend practising.

Cattistock in a hurry with crushing victory

Dorset Funeral Plan League
Premier League Division One

WEYMOUTH 153 FOR 6 BEAT

BROADSTONE 207 ALL OUT BY FOUR WICKETS.

WEYMOUTH dug deep to clinch a Duckworth-Lewis method four-wicket win over hosts Broadstone at the Delph Ground.

A 73-run opening stand gave the hosts a useful platform to build from. But seamer David Trotter stepped in to remove both openers and went on the card figures of 4 for 54 from his 10 overs as Broadstone were dismissed for 207 in the 43rd over with Matt Kawes (2-38) and Simon Browne (2 for 55) amongst the wickets.

A heavy downpour saw the Seasiders' target reduced to 150 off 36 overs.

Lawes (36, 7x4) and skipper Jim Ryall (23) matched their opponents opening stand with another 73-run effort and 36 extras helped Weymouth reach 153 for 6 with 25 balls to spare.

Premier League 2

Dorchester 123 for 3 beat

Blandford 120 all out by seven wickets.

THREE wicket hauls from Pete Moxom (3 for 14) and James Dunham (3 for 22) put Dorchester in the driving seat at Blandford on Saturday.

But the impetus began in the opening over when Fergus Guppy snapped up opener Steve Franklin for a duck off skipper Dan Belt.

A regular flow of wickets saw the hosts to a lowly 120 all out after 38 overs.

Dorch reached their target in the 25th over thanks to a nine-boundary top-score of 57 not out from Quenton Miller after openers Moxom and Will Caldwell had both made 22 apiece.

Dorchester welcome Wimbome & Colehill at the weekend.

County Division Two

CATTISTOCK 46 FOR 0 BEAT

STALBRIDGE 2NDS 42 ALL OUT BY 10 WICKETS.

TOP of the table Cattistock surged to victory in double quick time at Stalbridge to further cement their push for the Division Two title.

The hosts, batting first were all out for just 42 in 19.3 overs as Brad Damen – a career-best 6 for 19 – and Martin Langford (3 for 18) tore through their batting line-up.

The run chase lasted just 33 balls as Jon Legg (16no) and Mike White (30no) strolled to victory.

DORCHESTER 2NDS 140 BEAT

WIMBORNE & COLEHILL 3RDS 118 FOR 9 BY 22 RUNS.

AFTER losing the toss and being asked to bat first on what was a fairly hard track Dorchester 2nds openers Lewis Chutter and Greg both struggled to come to terms with the Wimbome attack with just six runs coming off of the first five overs.

Holland was the first to go when he edged the ball to slip for 9. This brought Marcus Evans to the crease. The pair lasted two overs together before Lewis was caught for 9.

Mike Peak was next in and he and Evans attempted to steady the ship.

But Evans was trapped in front for 18. Stuart Beasley and Peak then managed to up the run rate before Peak was adjudged LBW despite stepping outside leg stump.

When Beasley fell for 60 a collapse saw the last six batsman depart for just for 17.

Even with only 140 on the board Dorchester were still confident that they had enough runs in the bank.

And so it proved as Peak 10-1-20-2, Beasley 10-1-26-4, Chutter 6-1-11-1 and George Foot 9-0-32-2 all chipped in with wickets as W & C were restricted to 118 for 9. Afterwards Beaseley, who was voted the Durnaveria Man-of-the-Match said: "We need to hit a few more runs, but the bowling and fielding was fantastic.

"Team spirit is very high at the moment with three wins on the bounce. We have Cattistock next week and the whole team is up for the challenge of upsetting the leaders."

County Division Three

BRIDPORT 1ST 223 BEAT

KINGSTON LACY 138 BY 85 RUNS.

BRIDPORT moved up to sixth place in the Division Three table with an impressive 85-run win over promotion-chasing visitors Kingston Lacy.

Batting first Bridport lost Mark Smith (5) when he gave a return catch to D.Priddle at 25 for 1.

But fellow opener Sam Challis, who top-scored with 47, and new skipper Duane Gay (36) compiled second wicket partnership of 66.

At 114 for 4 the innings could have petered out but useful middle order runs from Liam Toohill (35) and Alex Lee (45) pushed the score up to a challenging 223 for 8 after the allotted 45 overs.

The Lacey reply was going well at 46 for 0 when Lee made the breakthrough.

A second wicket stand of 44 kept the visitors very much in the hunt at 91 for 1. But from here it was all Bridport with Duane Gay (3 for 16), Rod Gay (3-32) and Challis 2-7) doing most damage as Lacey capitulated to 138 all out in the 35th over.

County Division Four

PORTLAND RT 2ND 208 FOR 9 LOST TO

CERNE VALLEY 2NDS 211 FOR 2 BY EIGHT WICKETS.

A HALF-CENTURY from Laurence West (50) and 43 from Tom Dalkins couldn't save Portland Red Triangle 2nds from a heavy eight defeat against visiting Cerne Valley 2nds.

Triangle closed on 208 for 9 from their allotted 40 overs but Cerne set about their task with few alarms with opener Dave Baney unbeaten on 105 and Mark Whitmarsh clipping a fine 47 as they reached 210 for 2 in the 36th over.

◆ BIRTHDAY TREAT: Cameron Luxcas marked his 21st birthday with 21 no and four catches in Charlton Down's five wicket win over Broadstone 4ths.

County Division Five

CHARLTON DOWN 129 FOR 5 BEAT

BROADSTONE 4THS 128 ALL OUT BY FIVE WICKETS

CHARLTON Down returned to winning ways with a hard fought five wicket victory over the Dorset Cricket League Team-of-the-Month winners for May – Broadstone 4ths.

Birthday boy Cameron Lucas, playing his first game of the season, on his 21st birthday claimed four catches behind the stumps and scored exactly 21 not out hitting the winning runs.

Batting first Broadstone started positively with 55 runs coming in the first 10 overs but for the loss of four wickets with Kim Park (2-31) and Matt Stevens (2-40) claiming two wickets each.

Tommy Tucker then claimed a further two wickets to reduce Broadstone to 65-6.

A spirited fightback by Steve Newcombe and Steve Eddington added 37 before Rich Fagence struck twice to remove Newcombe one short of his 50 caught at square leg by Rob Deadman and Ed-dington top edging to Lucas for his fourth catch.

Javed Gill (2-13) then clean bowled the last two players to conclude the Broadstone innings at 128 all out in the 31st over.

Charlton Down got off to a terrible start losing both openers within the first four overs at 4-2.

Javed Gill (35) and Matt Stevens (20) batted well until Stevens mistimed a pull shot and top edged it to the wicketkeeper for 20 with the score on 39-3.

A solid 50-run partnership between Gill and Jack Eveleigh was ended when Eveleigh (15) was bowled by Stroud with the score on 89-4.

This soon became 91-5 when Gill's (35) hour and half stay at the crease was ended when Froud (2-30) claimed his second wicket. But Gill showed great patience and almost steered the innings to victory.

It was left to Cameron Lucas to crash the balls to the boundary and alleviate the batting nerves and hitting the winning runs in the 30th over.

Captain Tommy Tucker said: "It was good to get back to winning ways after last week's disappointment. The young team showed great character against a good Broadstone bowling attack.

"Javed continued his good form with the bat and help the young players. It was great to see Cameron Lucas performing well on his birthday, taking four catches and scoring the winning runs."

County Division Six

BEAMINSTER 2ND 141 FOR 7 CRANBORNE 176 FOR 7

BEAMINSTER 2nds headed off to north Dorset confident of success and strengthened by the addition of first teamer Jack Walklett.

Cranborne batted first under black lowering skies that threatened a deluge at any moment. They started very slowly at 18-0 after 10 overs.

After 30 overs the score had moved along to only 91-5. But then the game's mood changed and Cranborne made merry by scoring 85 runs in the final 10 overs - virtually doubling the score in the period and finishing on 176-7.

Ollie Boxall was the chief wicket taker snapping up three victims.

The rain finally came as Cranborne's innings ended and tea was taken as the deluge fell. But after half an hour it was over and the wicket was perfectly playable, though with a slow outfield.

Beaminster's innings closely followed the pattern of Cranborne's, with runs hard to come by.

After 10 overs the score was 25-0 and only 73-5 after 30 overs.

Although the rate increased as Beaminster sought a by now unlikely win with 68 coming in the final 10 overs, the game ended with the score at 141-7. The chief run-getters were Shaun Annetts (34, Dave Persey (34) and Justin Gurd (35 not out).

Sunday Division Four

PORTLAND RED TRIANGLE 204 ALL OUT (19PTS)

BEAT SYMENE 138 FOR 9 (8PTS) BY 66 RUNS

PORTLAND Red Triangle completed a comfortable 66-run victory over Symene at Crepe Farm on Sunday.

Batting first, 'The Angles' amassed 204 thanks to a solid 32 from No3 bat Will McKay who found support throughout his innings yet was kept in check by some fine bowling from Alex Lee whose 1-27 deserved a better return.

Left hander Kit Rudolph (39) blasted some quick runs in partnership with Andy Thorne (32) to boost the total but Symene stuck to their task well to dismiss Portland with good ground-fielding inducing three run-outs and Liam Toohill returning 2-25.

In reply, an economical spell from Jody Locke (2-13) made early inroads before Phil Hawkins, continuing his fine vein of form with a classy 42, held up Portland, gaining support from a stoic Steve Prior (13).

Spinner McKay (2-19) and Rudolph (2-34) continued to plug away, picking up wickets at regular intervals.

The final pair Colin Willcox (11no) and Paul Edwards (20no) provided last wicket defiance in an unbeaten partnership of 34 to deny Angles the final bonus point yet Portland ran out comfortable winners.

THE first of the medal competitions for June took place on a Sunday.

Mark Boggust set the pace with a winning score of 75/12/63, this also being the lowest gross score.

In second place, Brian Drammis scored 77/12/65 with a subsequent handicap cut to 11 for both players. Andy Cutler took third place with 92/22/70.

The medal on the following Wednesday had a good entry.

A very inclement forecast and heavy morning rain resulted in some depletion of the field. By 10 o'clock however, the rain had largely cleared.

Paul Comer secured first place with 87/19/68. Andy Draper was second with 91/20/71 and Colin Davis took third with 91/19/72.

Dave Wallbridge won the Wednesday stableford scoring 40 points from his 26 handicap. This was lowered by one shot before the next competition.

Bob Irwin achieved 39/26 for second place and Tony Lee was third with 38/19.

The Sunday stableford resulted in a win for steadily improving Jules Walker. His 42 points from a 15 handicap was enough for a further one shot handicap cut.

Tony Lee improved by one place to second with an identical 38/19 score achieved the previous Wednesday. Andy Draper took third place with 37/20.

The Three Counties team had two home matches during the month. – a 4-1 win against Cannington and a 4½-½ victory over Folke.

The win momentum is sure to be tested by three consecutive upcoming away matches.

The seniors have also been busy with three home matches played. Against Somerley Park the result was a 4½-1½ win.

Then Seven pairs played against Sturminster Marshall for a 5½-1½ win.

Finally, the team also enjoyed a 4½-1½ success against Came Down.

Cricket extra - Somerset ccc

Record tumbles to Trescothick

SOMERSET'S hopes of reaching the lucrative second stage of the revamped NatWest T20 Blast competition were left hanging by a thread after a hefty eight-wicket defeat against high-flying Essex at Taunton on Friday evening writes Howard Larcombe.

The Cidemen gave a debut to Budleigh Salterton batsman James Burke. But the 23-year-old had an uninspiring first appearance in a match that, after a decent opening quarter, Somerset struggled to get on top of their visitors.

After winning the toss Essex skipper Ryan ten Doeschate invited Somerset to bat first.

The decision seemed to have backfired as the hosts cruised to 100 for 1 in the 12th over with a firm platform in place.

But then Craig Kieswetter fell for a top-score 40 and this sparked an alarming collapse that saw the score tumble to 111 for 4 with less than five overs remaining. Debutant Burke contributed just four off six deliveries.

These vital closing overs subsequently yielded just 39 runs to give a below par 150 for 7 total.

The reply began with Mark Pettini and pugnacious Kiwi Jesse Ryder putting on 49 inside six overs. Lewis Gregory then had Ryder caught behind for 28 off 18 Tom Westley was trapped l front in the next over to give the Cidemen a sniff.

But Pettini (60no) and Ravi Bopara saw the Essex boys home with few alarms to a Duckworth-Lewis target of 125 for no further loss.

SCORES: SOMERSET 150 FOR 7 (Kieswetter 40, Trego 34; G.Napier 2-32) lost to ESSEX 125 FOR 2 (M.Pettini 60no, R.Bopara 33no) by eight wickets on Duckworth-Lewis method.

Meanwhile, on Sunday play was delayed for an hour by rain on the first day of the LV County championship match with Lancashire.

The northerners won the toss and elected to bat first on an unusually slow, low Taunton wicket. Somerset had a good opening couple of sessions when play did get underway restricting Lancashire to 130 for 4 at tea with a first bowling point safely in the bank.

Ex-County Ground favourite Joss Buttler, making his first appearance at Taunton since his move north, was 11 not out at the interval having clubbed his eighth ball into the long room.

Buttler was keeping opener Paul Horton good company and the pair went on to compile a 53-run partnership before being clean bowled by Lewis Gregory at 165 for 5 for a patient 18 which included two maximums.

The arrival of the second new ball brought immediate dividends as Lewis Gregory removed Horton for superb 140 to clinch a second bowling point as Lancashire reached stumps on day one at 221 for 6.

Day Two belonged to Somerset as they first snapped the remaining four wickets to dismiss Lancs for 266 and made steady, if unspectacular progress with the bat to close on 193 for 2 with Skipper Marcus Trescothick 107no, his 54th first class ton, and Alviro Petersen 57no in an unbroken partnership of 144.

When he had reached three (off 38 balls!) Trescothick became the highest ever run scorer at Taunton passing Lionel Palaite's record of 7228 which had stood since 1909.

(The next five in the list are; Peter Roebuck 6414, Harold Gimblett 5669, Viv Richards 5631, James Hildreth 5510 and Peter Bowler 5200).

By mid-afternoon on Tuesday (day three) the title-chasing Cidemen had moved 139 runs ahead on 405 for 8 with Craig Overton, threatening a career-best on 66, and Alfonso Thomas (19no) putting on a crucial unbroken ninth-wicket stand of 78.

SCORES: LANCASHIRE 1st INNINGS 266 (P.Horton 140; A.Thomas 3-34, G.Dockrell 3-48, L.Gregory 3-65). SOMERSET 1st INNINGS 404 FOR 8 (M.Trescothick 128, A.Petersen 73, C.Overton 66no). ♦ ALFONSO Thomas has been named as the Somerset Player-of-the-Month for May. The 37-year-old seamer came out on top in a poll on the SCCC website.
